

2009 Great Florida Fire School

November 4 to 8, 2009

New Location – New Classes

The 2009 Great Florida Fire School will be held at the new state of the art Treasure Coast Public Safety Complex, at Indian River State College, in Fort Pierce. The school will be hosted by Indian River State College and the Treasure Coast Fire Chiefs' Association, with St. Lucie County Fire Rescue serving as the host agency.

Florida's Premier Fire School

-

5 days of continuous fire related classes that are set up to train all fire departments, from the large city departments, to the small rural ones. The school also has classes related to EMS and police. You pick the classes you want to attend from the list and set them up around your schedule.

-

The $80.00 fee covers as many of the scheduled classes you can attend in the five day period, plus admission to the banquet.

For more information, class schedules and registration forms, visit the Great Florida Fire School web site at:
www.greatfloridafireschool.org